DETAILED ACTION

This is in response to a letter for a patent filed February 7, 2002 in which claims 1–26 were presented for examination. Claims 1-26 are pending.

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 02/25/2002 is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner. A copy of PTO-1449 is attached hereto.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 and 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted steps are:

“designating base parameters” and “designating custom parameters”.

The applicant has recited the claim language “providing an interface for designating base parameters”, but has nowhere recited that the base parameters are actually designated before selecting a base die. The examiner believes the designating step is critical or essential to the practice of the invention.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the designated chip" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "the designated base parameters" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, 10, 17, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nanbu et al. (US Patent Number 6,970,754).

As for claims 1, 10, 17, and 20, Nanbu et al. disclose a computerized method of calculating a custom die price, comprising:

providing an interface for designating base parameters (col. 4, lines 22-24); selecting a base die based on the base parameters (col. 14, lines 25-33); creating a reference die based on a design methodology and the base parameters(col. 4, lines 49-67);

calculating a complexity factor based on designated custom parameters and the reference die (col. 8, line 54-col. 9, line 10); and calculating the custom die price based on the base die, the custom parameters and the complexity factor (FIG. 41).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 3-4 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

5. Claims 2-16, 18-19, and 21-26 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The examiner has cited prior art of interest, for example:

1) Liu (US PG Pub. 2003/0125825), which discloses a computer-aided progressive die design system and method.

2) Guest et al. (Patent Number 6,252,981), which disclose a system and method for selection of a reference die.

3) Magee et al. (US Patent Number 6,529,790), which disclose a computation of die-per-wafer considering production technology and wafer size.

4) Ladd, Steven, "Advanced MCM design", August 1995, Printed Circuit Design, v12n8, PP: 10-16, 7 pgs.

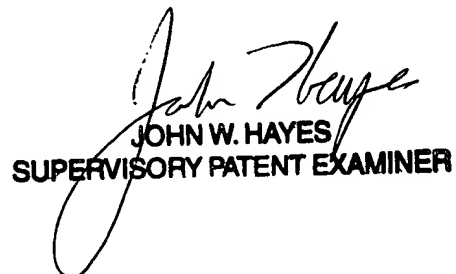

5) Kuo et al., "An Overview of Manufacturing Yield and Reliability Modeling for Semiconductor Products", August 1999, Proceedings of the IEEE, VOL. 87, NO. 8. pp. 1329-1344.
